

New Parent Support Program

SOLUTIONS to Parenting Challenges

Parents will be able to put new skills into practice and face discipline challenges with confidence. These techniques will be helpful in:

April 21st, July 14th & October 13th
8:30am to 12:30pm

For location, more information, and to register for the class or childcare,
please call 830-7622

- Raising infants, toddlers and preschoolers.
- Helping parents build trust with their baby by consistently providing calm and confident guidance.
- Teaching parents how to use supervision and clear communication to support their toddlers growing independence.
- Explaining how clear expectations, time-outs and natural consequences help young children become more cooperative.

